Conditions of Licence

(1) This licence is granted in reliance on the information declared on the application. Provision of false information or making false declaration shall render this licence null and void. Heavy penalties are provided for false declaration and information, unauthorized alterations and misuse of the licence.

(2) A breach of any of the conditions of licence imposed by the Director-General of Trade and Industry may render this licence to be cancelled, revoked or suspended in addition to other appropriate legal and/or administrative actions to be taken against the entities concerned.

(3) The goods covered by this licence are not to be used in relation to nuclear, biological or chemical weapons or missile capable of delivering these weapons.

(4) The exporter is required to inform the recipients of the goods of all the conditions of this licence (see Important Note (7) overleaf).

(5) Prior approval from the Director-General of Trade and Industry is required if the goods declared on this licence are not for civil end-use.

(6) For in-transit cases, the goods must remain on board at all times while in Hong Kong unless directed by the Commissioner of Customs and Excise or his authorized officers.

(7) If the arms and ammunition covered by this licence also fall under the control of the Firearms and Ammunition Ordinance (Cap. 238), the validity of this licence is subject to the issue of a valid licence for possession or dealer's licence by the Hong Kong Police Force.

(8) All or any of the information provided in this licence may be disclosed by Trade and Industry Department to third parties either in Hong Kong or elsewhere provided that such disclosure is in the interests of Hong Kong.

(9) The Director-General of Trade and Industry reserves the right to impose additional conditions of licence as he sees fit. Such additional conditions may be promulgated in circulars and notices issued by Trade and Industry Department.
