TID 501 [Rev 2004]

(11)	The importer must lodge import declarations with the Commissioner of Customs and Excise in respect of items on the licence within 14 days of shipment.
(12)	The licence is issued to the importer for his use to import goods covered by the licence and is NOT TRANSFERABLE.
(13)	All or any of the information provided in the licence may be disclosed by Trade and Industry Department to third parties either in Hong Kong or elsewhere, provided that such disclosure is in the public interest.
(14)	The Director-General of Trade and Industry reserves the right to impose additional conditions of licence as he sees fit in the public interest. Such additional conditions may be promulgated in circulars and notices issued by Trade and Industry Department.

(I) Importer's Declaration

(i) I hereby declare that I act on behalf of the importer of the goods declared on this application, that the particulars given herein are true, and that the goods covered by this application shall be imported as described.

(ii) I undertake to take appropriate precautionary measures to ensure that the goods covered by this application will only be used by or transferred to civil end-users for civil end-use.

(iii) I understand that import licence, if granted, is granted in reliance on the information provided and declared in this application form and is subject to the Conditions of Licence as stated in Part (H) above and any other conditions that the Director-General of Trade and Industry may impose. I have read and hereby undertake to abide by those conditions and any other conditions which the Director-General of Trade and Industry imposes regarding the import of the goods declared on this application.

(iv) I undertake to inform the recipient(s) of the goods of the Conditions of Licence and other conditions imposed by the Director-General of Trade and Industry regarding the import of the goods declared on this application and to remind the recipient(s) to seek the Director-General of Trade and Industry's approval in case the goods are to be re-exported.

(v) I understand and agree that all or any of the information provided in this licence application form may be disclosed by Trade and Industry Department to third parties either in Hong Kong or elsewhere, if such disclosure is necessary to facilitate consideration of the related application, is in the public interest, is authorised or required by the law, or if explicit consent to such disclosure is given by the applicant/data subject.

Notes

- (1) This form contains two pages. Applicant is highly recommended to print it into ONE single A4 sheet (i.e. back-to-back printing/copying) for usage and submission. If it is printed into two sheets of paper, applicant should ensure that the two sheets and all supporting documents are stapled or clipped together when submitted. Trade and Industry Department will not accept applications comprising loosely submitted papers.
- (2) Applicant should use the appropriate country name and country code as provided in the latest edition of "Hong Kong Imports and Exports Classification List (Harmonized System)".
- (3) Applicant should fill in the end-user information where available. In certain cases in which the specific end-user cannot be identified at the time of licence application, the applicant may declare "not yet available" in the box. Applicants should check with the Trade and Industry Department whether such declaration is acceptable in case they have difficulty providing the end-user information. In other cases, an end-user statement completed by the end-user concerned may be required to support the application. If there are more than one end-user, separate sheets should be used and the date, signature, company/business chop and signatory's name should be provided in block letters.
- (4) If the arrival date and/or the vessel, flight or vehicle number cannot be identified at the time of licence application, the applicant may declare "not yet arrived" and/or "not yet available" in the relevant boxes.
- (5) The provision of an explicit export authorisation issued by the government(s) of the products' foreign exporting/originating country(place) or an import authorisation issued by the government(s) of products' final destination would facilitate the consideration of the application, particularly if the goods concerned is subject to enhanced surveillance by the relevant country(place) or the relevant international export control regimes.
- (6) Trade and Industry Department provides a pre-classification service to advise traders on the control status of any product. For details, please contact Trade and Industry Department or refer to the relevant circular on the subject.
- (7) C.I.F. Value comprises the cost of the goods to the HK importer up to the arrival in HK of the vessel, vehicle or aircraft carrying the goods, together with the amount of the insurance, freight and any other charges.

Important Note : The data collected in this form will be kept in confidence. They may however be disclosed to other to third parties in Hong Kong or elsewhere, if such disclosure is necessary to facilitate consideration of the related application, is in the public interest, is authorised or required by the law; or if explicit consent to such disclosure is given by the applicant/data subject.

For other information concerning the handling of personal data by the Department, please refer to a relevant Note issued by the Department on the subject, copy of which is obtainable from Strategic Trade Controls Branch on 5/F, Trade and Industry Department Tower, 700 Nathan Road, Kowloon, Hong Kong.
