3. Both the signatory and/or the Company understands that utilisation of services and access to information provided in the Company's E-Account are subject to the conditions listed below. The signatory hereby agrees on behalf of the Company that he has read and understood these conditions and undertakes to comply with them.

Conditions

General

- (a) Each E-Account is a company account and its use is exclusively at the discretion of the management of the company, i.e. the E-Account holder ("E-Holder").
- (b) The conditions of use for E-Accounts may be updated and revised by the Department from time to time by posting the revised version in SC Web with prior notice to users in writing.
- (c) E-Holders when making electronic applications in their E-Accounts are further subject to conditions imposed by the Director-General of Trade and Industry for such applications which may be stipulated in the applications and/or announced through circulars published by the Department.

Provision of Services and Information

- (d) The services and information is provided in E-Accounts on an "as is" basis. The Department assumes no responsibility for the untimeliness, deletion and mis-delivery of information or failure of the services provided on the SC Web.
- (e) The technical processing and transmission of the services and information concerned may involve data transmission over various networks; and changes in data format to conform and adapt to technical requirements of connecting networks or devices. The Department shall, accordingly, in no circumstances, be liable for any failure of delivery of services and information or for any inability to gain access to any of such services and information due to the delay or failure of any communication networks or any party providing such access.

Collection of Personal Information

- (f) E-Holders are required to provide certain personal data in activating and using their E-Accounts. Such data may include Hong Kong Identity Card Number, Passport Number, name of contact person, position, day-time contact telephone number and correspondence email address etc.. The data will be used by the Department for facilitating provision of services/information through the E-Account and ensuring that the E-Account is used by the authentic and eligible user. E-Holders providing incomplete or inaccurate data may be denied access to the E-Accounts and be ineligible for using the services and information on the SC Web.

- (g) The Department is committed to ensuring that all personal data provided in the E-Accounts are handled in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.
- (h) E-Holders should further refer to the relevant Personal Information Collection Statements pertaining to the respective web-based services for electronic applications available in their E-Accounts.

Use of Digital Certificate

- (i) All electronic applications made in E-Accounts require the signature of any of the authorized personnel named in paragraph 2 above. Every E-Holder is therefore required to be a subscriber of a digital certificate (i.e. e-Certificate or eCert) issued by a Certification Authority recognized by HKSAR Government. For the time being, the Department will only accept electronic applications made with the digital certificates issued by the Hongkong Post or Digi-Sign Certification Services Limited (Digi-Sign) which are the recognized Certification Authorities in Hong Kong.
- (j) E-Holder MUST make electronic applications with a valid e-Certificate (Organizational) of the company. And, the E-Holder himself/herself MUST be the subscriber of the certificate. The e-Certificate is required so that the electronic applications can comply with the following requirements :
 - (i) Authenticity & Non Repudiation
 - The electronic application should bear the digital signature of an applicant who is authorized by the company to sign on its behalf so that the Department is able to ensure the authenticity of the identity of both the company and the applicant. This is also necessary for avoiding repudiation by the company and the applicant concerned of having made the application.
 - (ii) Confidentiality
 - The electronic application must be transmitted in a manner in which the Department will be the only recipient able to read and understand the messages. The content and information of a transaction is kept private and secret from unauthorized third parties.
 - (iii) Integrity
 - The electronic application must be transmitted in a way where the integrity of the application particulars can be guaranteed. In other words, the application particulars contained in the electronic application will not be tampered with, either accidentally or deliberately, during transmission.
- (k) E-Holders should ensure that the digital certificate is not revoked or liable to be revoked at the time an electronic application is made.

Login ID, Password and Security

- (l) Each E-Account is accessible with a pair of Login ID and Password as defined by the E-Holder himself. To define his Login ID and Password, E-Holder should first activate his E-Account by keying in a pair of Login ID and Password pre-assigned and notified by the Department through registered mail. After activation, each E-Holder MUST set a pair of Login ID and Password for his account. For security sake, the Password is suggested to be altered from time to time.

- (m) E-Holders may be assigned passwords or Personal Identification Numbers (PIN) for the digital certificates issued to them by a Certification Authority recognized by the HKSAR Government for making electronic applications within their E-Accounts.
- (n) E-Holders are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and authorized uses of their Login ID and Password or PIN for their E-Accounts and digital certificates and are fully responsible for all activities that occur with the use of the Login ID and Password or PIN.
- (o) The use of services by any person (whether authorized by E-Holders or not) with the Login ID and Password of the E-Account or PIN of digital certificates shall constitute and be deemed to be the use by the E-Holders themselves.
- (p) The Department will not be liable for any divulgence of Login ID and Password or PIN or loss or damage arising from the E-Holder's failure to comply with the above conditions or the conditions for the use of any digital certificates in connection with any electronic applications made in the E-Accounts.

Warranties and Liability

- (q) The use of services and information in the E-Accounts are at the own discretion and risk of E-Holders. The Department will not accept any liability for loss or damage resulting from (i) the use of and inability to use the services and information obtained through or from the E-Accounts; (ii) events of interrupted or delayed services and information; and, (iii) unauthorized access to or alteration of applications and particulars made in the E-Accounts.
